Mr. Dulles received the copy of your letter of 28 March just prior to leaving Washington for ten day's absence. He asked that I remain for him and state that he would be delighted to see [redacted] at any time, but that unfortunately he would not be in Washington during the week of 4 April. He arranged, however, for Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell, the Deputy Director, and the Acting Director in Mr. Dulles' absence, to see [redacted]

[redacted] did not call during the week, and therefore no appointment was made. If his trip has been delayed, I am sure that Mr. Dulles would like very much to see him when next he is in Washington.

Sincerely,
